ALL SORTS.

Assemblyman Melarkey, of Lyon county, arrived in Carson last evening.

The wife of C. P. Mengel presented him with a son yesterday in Hawthorn.

E. Bryan has moved his restaurant down street into the building next to the Ozark.

Zach Taylor knocked Ramsey out in the third round at Winnemucca, Saturday night.

Hon. George Russell and his daughters, Misses Lida and Ruth, departed for Chicago on the 22d.

Pete Heidanger, wife and child, arrived in Carson Sunday from Los Angeles, accompanied by Wm. Spurgeon.

The alarm of fire early last evening was caused by the overturning of a lamp in Muller's store. Joe Muller saved the store.

There was a light fall of snow early Monday morning, and though yesterday was clear, a disagreeably cold wind prevailed.

The financial question is the all absorbing topic in New York. Cleveland has announced that silver notes will be paid in gold.

D. Bryan has fitted up his new restaurant in neat, attractive shape, and is already receiving a lively run of custom.

Soldier Walker trained down five pounds at the fire last night, and among other things Billy Armstrong rescued a wet plank.

Wolmering, of the Arcade still continues to dispense fine wines, liquors and cigars. You can get a nice clean bed there also.

Johnny Meyers can please the most fastidious in the matter of drawing a fine glass of beer. Try him once at his saloon, south Carson street.

The World's Fair edition of the San Francisco Chronicle, published Sunday, is a typographical monument to the enterprise of the publishers. It weighs about four pounds.

A newspaper boy threw a Sunday Chronicle into a front yard yesterday. It took a thick branch off a fruit tree, knocked out four flower pots, broke three pickets out of the porch railing and maimed a cat for life.

The Times-Review says the continuous cold and stormy weather is proving fatal to flocks and herds north of Tuscarora. Altube Brothers report a loss of 50 per cent of their sheep and 20 per cent of their cattle running on the desert.

The Trans-Mississippi Congress met at Ogden yesterday. In front of the Speaker's desk was a life size portrait of Senator Stewart of Nevada, "Our Silver Champion." On the left hand side of the stage was one of Washington and upon the opposite one of Columbus.

Having a Good Time.

If a man wants to really have a good time, he cannot do better than to try newspaper editing. There is lots of fun in it for the reason that if it contains too much reading matter, the people won't take it. If the type is too large, it don't contain enough reading matter. If the type is too small, the people won't read it. If we publish telegraphic reports, the people will say they are all lies. We omit them, people will say we have no enterprise, or suppress them for political effect. If we have a few jokes, they say we are rattle-headed. If we omit them they say we are old fossils. If we publish original matter, they condemn us for not giving selections. If we publish selections, they say we are lazy for not writing more, and giving them what they read in other newspapers. If we give a man a complimentary notice, then they censure us for being partial. If we remain in the office and attend to business, folks say we are too proud to mingle with our fellows. If we do not, they say we never attend to business.—Mendocino Beacon.

NEVADA'S OPPORTUNITY.

Arrival of 15,000 French Prune and other Fruit Trees.

William Kelly, a practical nurseryman of twenty years' experience and who is interested with J. E. McDonald in the experiment of introducing French prune and other fruit tree in Nevada, arrived in Carson Monday with the finest lot of fruit trees ever brought to Nevada.

The shipment embraces 10,000 French prunes trees, 5,000 apple, pear, peach, cherry and fig trees, besides rose bushes, etc. The trees are now on exhibition at the Fox lot, facing west of Raycraft's stables, and a constant stream of people have been filling in and out of the lot, all purchasing trees. You can secure a tree of any description at 25 cents apiece.

Mr. Kelly says in all his experience he never saw soil better adapted to the culture of fruit, and says Nevada ought to be one vast orchard.

J. E. McDonald took a trip of 52 miles up Carson Valley Sunday, and says that every person he met in the valley owning any land gave him orders for French prune trees, those who had hitherto experimented in the raising of prune trees stating that the trees had never failed to bear.

Nevada's mines having failed or been worked out, our people must turn their attention to her agricultural possibilities, and now is the time to begin. Every fruit tree and shrub offered for sale by Messrs. McDonald & Kelly should be purchased and planted immediately. Call and examine the trees and our word for it you will soon purchase.—Tribune.

The Ring.

Billy Armstrong is going to give the Carson sports a chance to witness a rattling heavyweight contest on the 4th at the Opera House. Both men are training hard, and as this is their second meeting, it ought to be very interesting. Turner is a man of immense physique, and it is said he has a wonderful pair of legs. He has danced on a water two hours and a half, beating the coast record, as a jig dancer for time.

Walker is not as heavy as Turner, but is taller with a longer reach and is more scientific. He has defeated Turner once, and is confident of repeating the performance.

The fact that the contest is under the management of Billy Armstrong is a sufficient guarantee that it is a bonafide contest and in no sense a fake, as he has several other fictitious events in view, and cannot afford to be connected with anything crooked. He is personally acquainted with both men, and can vouch for the fairness of the contest. The box sheet will open Wednesday and reserved seats can be secured without extra charge.

An unofficial list of the membership of the fifty-third congress has been compiled by Clerk Kerr. The list is unusually full, of the 356 seats only one being vacant, the seventh Massachusetts district. According to the count the Democrats have 220 representatives, the Republicans 127 and the Populists eight, giving the Democrats a majority of ninety-three over the Republicans and of eighty-eight over all.

Stockholders' Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Red Oak Mining Company will be held at the office of the Company in M. Cohn's store, Carson street, Carson City, Nev., on Monday, May 1st, 1893, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., of said day.

Last Night's Fire.

A fire was discovered last night about 9:30 in the rear of the restaurant just vacated by Mr. Bryan. The alarm was given and the firemen were promptly on hand Warren Juniors getting on first water.

The flames communicated with Sweeney's saloon and the left side of the building was soon ablaze. Willing hands emptied the saloon of everything movable.

There appears to have been some trouble about getting on water, as nearly every fireman had his own ideas about it, and there seemed to be about two foremen to every man. What the fire department needs in this city is a head or chief; there are too many men giving orders, and too much time and water wasted.

While the boys work hard and do their best, it is quite evident that their efforts lack precision or system.

When water was finally got on the flames were extinguished in about half an hour.

Mrs. Laporte owned the property, which is insured. Sweeney is insured for $2500 which will cover his loss.

Nobody knows how the fire started but as there has been no fires in the stoves for a day or two, some entertain the incendiary theory. The saloon and restaurant are pretty far gone.

Sweeney moved his fixtures into the Ozark last night immediately after the fire.

Dropped Dead.

Robert Rule, a former resident of Elko, dropped dead in Battle Mountain about 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon. From Mr. Blossom who came up this morning, we learn that the old gentleman had been ailing with heart trouble for the last two weeks and yesterday morning while seated in the Gem restaurant at Battle Mountain conversing with Mr. and Mrs. Mayo, the proprietors, he was seized with a violent fit of coughing and fell to the floor. Dr. Hood was called and applied the usual restoratives but the heart failed to respond and the old man's spirit passed away to the other shore.

Mr. Rule was the father of Mrs. A. J. Pullman, of Elko, and Henry B. and Miss Mamie Rule of Reno.—Independent.

A "Nuttty" Hen.

Tom Tennant has a fullblooded Cochon hen that apparently hears strange noises under her hood. For the past two weeks she has been diligently engaged in laying a well developed egg each day, including Sundays. There is nothing strange about that, however, nor is it a very peculiar circumstance that this old egg factory dropped them all off a perch three feet onto some hay, but the fact that this freaky fowl is now complacently hovering on the perch, directly over the nest of eggs, each day, supposedly with the object in view of hatching the aforesaid chicken receptacles, is calculated to give one a low estimate of that particular fowl's success as a perambulating incubator.

The Shoot.

Dr. Lee's team won the first of the series of three matches Sunday between two picked teams of twenty men each. The winning team rolled up 809 points and McCullough's 798. All previous records for 40 men from one company were broken. They expect to smash the record again next Sunday.

Improvements are going on all over town, and when Spring once gets a good foothold Carson will look like a veritable oasis.

From this on I will keep 10 varieties of apple trees that will keep from March to May, such as will sell in San Francisco by the car load when California apples are going out of season. I will do my own grafting and bring the prices down. In Spring I will condense from publications East and West the cheapest and best way to abate and destroy fruit pests. I have elms and other shade trees, roses and general nursery supplies.
